

ID	DESCRIPTION
1	The translator system must be able to translate an input ShEx file in an object domain model coded in some object oriented programming language.
1.1	If the input file cannot be translated due to incompatibilities with the target language the translator system will add an error/warning to the Error Management System.